

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences

The Weekly Wine Commentary

October 16, 2008

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences Santa Rosa, California

Wine of the Week

2006 Vaza Cosecha:

Unoaked and bright, this 90% Tempranillo is exactly the kind of wine I referred to in the lead article, with fresh berries, and a clean and crisp finish. It has perfect flavors and great affinity for a wide variety of foods. There's not much complexity in this lighter-bodied wine, just the sheer joy of unadulterated fruit! Imported by the Ferrer family which owns Gloria Ferrer in Sonoma County.

Tasting Notes

Very Highly Recommended

2004 Vaza Rioja, Crianza:

Lovers of Spanish reds will adore this Tempranillo-based wine with its earthy, deeply flavored, and cherry-like finish.